ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment and the information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and by clear and convincing evidence that no conditions will assure the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant Avery Demonda Mayes is a 23 year old male born in Houston, Texas. He is unemployed and lives with his mother.
2. Mayes is charged with being a felon in possession of a firearm. At the time of his arrest he attempted to flee from law enforcement officials.
3. Mayes has a history of drug use and mental illness and has prior felony convictions for possession of a controlled substance, as well as a conviction for assault. He also has a prior conviction for evading detention.
4. Mayes admits to current use of marijuana and cigarettes dipped in embalming fluid.
5. Mayes has had his probation revoked on at least two prior occasions. He has violated the terms of his Texas Youth Commission parole.
6. Pretrial services reports that Mayes's mother is reluctant to stand as co-surety on any bond that might be issued by this court.
7. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court or the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
